PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Founder Present

MackSims — Parent Company & Venture Studio | Tampa, Florida

- Lead end-to-end company building across a multi-venture portfolio, including strategic planning, brand positioning, product development, go-to-market strategy, beta launches, and operational accountability.
- Drive business development, community outreach, and partnership narratives for consumer and community platforms including MotoCrew, CurbCue, Sermon Studio, CoachCore, and FishCrew.
- Direct cross-functional design, engineering, and go-to-market workflows while managing feedback loops, quality standards, portfolio priorities, and shipping cadence.
- Build early-stage growth systems spanning positioning, user acquisition, partner and community channels, stakeholder communication, KPI ownership, and roadmap decisions.

Regional Director January 2015 – Present

Stream (Stream Energy / Stream Home)

- Lead business development, customer acquisition, relationship sales, channel and referral growth, and team development across retail energy and home services, including electricity, natural gas, mobile, and protective services.
- Built and sustained a relationship-driven sales and outreach engine focused on lead generation, pipeline development, customer acquisition, and long-term account relationships over 10+ years.
- Execute full-cycle consultative selling from prospecting and needs discovery through solution presentation, enrollment, closing, and retention follow-up.
- Expand market presence through territory development, community partnerships, partner recruitment, referral networks, and civic and community-based channels.
- Recruit, coach, and mentor associates and emerging leaders, reinforcing performance management, accountability, and talent development in a decentralized model.
- Own personal quota-style production with high autonomy, forecasting discipline, and consistent pipeline management while educating residential and business customers on energy and home-service value propositions.

United States Air Force Veteran

Military service developed strengths in disciplined operations, mission execution, integrity, adaptability, teamwork, and performance under pressure—capabilities applied to civilian leadership, customer-facing work, sales, and business operations.
